THE WORK OF 13, THE PRIDE OF 48

One hundred forty-one years ago today, March 4, 1789, the constitution of the United States became the governing statute of the people of the original thirteen colonies.

Like everything that is good, that is a success, that is recognized as the last word, the constitution of the thirteen colonies has met all the trials and tests of a new government.

Today the faith and labors of the thirteen original colonies is the pride, hope and admiration of the forty-eight states.

All success centers around happiness and most happiness comes through work.

JOHNSON SAYS CHINESE THINK WHILE WE RIDE

Tues., Feb. 25--The Chinese people think while we are out car riding, was a part of the message of the reverend A. J. Johnson, pastor of the Swedish Mission Church of McPherson.

Mr. Johnson says there are two things which form a basis for challenge. First there must be common interests and common experiences.

China challenges our imagination. Even her population can be numbered only in imaginations.

China challenges our imagination. Even her population can be numbered only in imaginations.

China challenges our imagination. Even her population can be numbered only in imaginations.

DON'TS FOR SPEAKERS

The following Don'ts for Rotary club speakers were published in a recent issue of the "Rotograph", the weekly publication of the Rotary Club of Fort Worth, Texas.

Don't write your remarks on paper. Write them on stiff cards that won't crackle.

Don't begin with an apology. It does not disarm criticism; it awakens it.

Don't mention the shortness of the time allotted to you. That wastes it.

Don't say that you looked in the dictionary to find the exact meaning of your topic.

Don't refer to what you said on a former occasion or to what you are going to say after a while.

Don't drop your voice at the end of a sentence. Don't lose your place if you should happen to be applauded.

Be logical. Be concise. Think a few thoughts of your own and present them simply, naturally and earnestly.

Don't tell an what corner of the street you met the Program Chairman when he asked you to make a talk nor what day of the week it was.

Don't talk longer than your allotted time, the song may sound or else your audience may walk out on you.

Don't tell them one about having a fine speech all written out, but you left it on the dresser, or that the pug chewed it up, or that you left it in the pocket of your other suit when you dressed for tea.

TOO SELF-COMPLACENT SAYS BILL BRAISTED

Thurs., Feb. 27--Bill Braisted, Y. M. secretary of Omaha, spoke to the student body in chapel at ten o'clock this morning.

In Korea there are 17,000 students in jail because they oppose Japanese domination. In China there is famine and lack of money with which to go to school.

In the United States the student live in comparatively luxury. In a general way they should be interested in social problems: international affairs, racial problems, personal friendships, industrial problems.

HISTORY MAJORS LEADING IN THE RANKS OF K. U. FELLOWSHIPS FROM McPHERSON COLLEGE

Survey Of K. U. Fellowship Students From M. C. Shows That Most Of Them Are Now Teaching In The Subject In Which They Majored

It is customary for the faculty to elect each year what is known as the honor student of the College. This honor is based mainly upon scholarship but also includes extra-curricular activities, not the number of activities but the manner in which the student handles them and the attitude he acquires in his relation with his fellow students. As a reward for receiving such an honor sentence the student to a fellowship to the University of Kansas, instead of four hundred dollars.

Dean R. E. Mohler, who has been connected with the College since 1914, has kept a complete record of students receiving the title as honor student and receiving the K. U. fellowship. In reviewing his records we list the following students with their present occupations:

In 1914 Robert Russell, history major, received the K. U. fellowship. Mr. Russell is now professor of history in the State Normal at Kalamazoo, Michigan. The following year Paul Healy, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Healy of the McPherson faculty, received the honor as honor student and is now principal of the high school at Grand Island, Nebraska.

George Wynn, 1915, is now a real estate agent in Wichita. In 1917, Alice Vogt, majoring in education, and a Verastien, Missouri girl, secured the fellowship and is now professor of education at Manchester college, North Manchester, Indiana, sister college of McPherson. Also majoring in education, Edith McGaffey, in 1918 secured the fellowship and now is head of the English department and also dean of women at McPherson college.

In 1919 Gene Greenwood of Jasper, Missouri, was honor student, and is now an instructor in St. Louis, Missouri college. Miss Robinson, 1920, sociology major, is now in the social work. Teaching the subject in which he majored, Paul Yeager, 1921, is now at Kansas college in Pennsylvania.

Jay Tracey, history major from Twin Falls, Idaho, is now a hardware dealer at Rocky Ford, Colorado, graduating in 1923. Ada Kurta, 1923, mother history major, whose home was at Marietta, Ohio, taught a few years after being graduated, and is now married and living at Canton, Ohio. Helen Elliot, a local girl, majoring in history, is now teaching at Walters, Oklahoma. Miss Elliot was a member of the graduating class of 1924. Laura McGaffey, sister of Edith McGaffey who received the fellowship in 1918, also received the coveted honor in 1925 and is now studying in the University of Wisconsin, at Madison. After teaching a few years after being graduated.

B. A. Wine, Woodside, Delaware, majoring in history and graduating in 1926 is now superintendent of schools at Zand, Kansas. L. A. Fleming, 1927, of Avery, Missouri, education major, is superintendent of schools at Monument, Kansas. Autumn Lindblom, the first student to receive the fellowship majoring in Latin is a local girl who is now teaching in the schools at Moundridge, Kansas. Last year's honor student was Dorothy Swain, Latin major, and is now attending the University of Kansas.

It is interesting to note that in the last thirteen years seven of the fellowships were granted to McPherson students. Of the sixteen students, two of them were members of the Methodist church, two members of the Congregational church, one Baptist, one Presbyterian, and ten members of the Church of the Brethren. Of the majors, six were in history, four in education, two in Latin, and one in physics, mathematics and sociology.

secretary of Fellowship of Reconciliation. He was, for 5 years, editor of the World Tomorrow, and later associate editor of The Nation. In 1923 he accepted the editorship of the New York Leader, one of the outstanding socialist publications.

His unusual ability as a speaker has made Norman Thomas a leader in the Socialist party. In 1928 he was a candidate for president on the socialist ticket. He has been prominent in political affairs in New York and recently was a candidate for Mayor of New York City.

Norman Thomas is, without a doubt, a leader in American thought. An article written by Meadster Coleman and published in The Nation for August 6, 1928 says of him: "He preaches peace and freedom for all people. Whether his speech is in pamphlet or statement to the press he speaks with a lucidity and the lucidity of municipal government, to which he brings expert knowledge, or a head-on attack upon the deception of both old parties, or the deep denunciation of imperialism he generally concludes with a compelling plea for a peaceful world."

On Friday, February 25, Mr. Thomas spoke three times on the campus of the University of Kansas. Previous to his coming, Chancellor Lindley of the University said, "Mr. Thomas is one of the most forceful and interesting speakers in America following the political dream of and eloquent speakers in America on social, economic and international problems. He is a national figure, unusually equipped to speak on these important questions."

Mr. Thomas will speak at the

St. Mary's	3	6,333	195 353
Kan. Wesleyan	2	4,350	193 259
Baker	1	7,125	183 213

Last week saw no changes in the relative line-up and gradation of the Kansas conference teams, except that Baker broke into the win column, by virtue of their victory over their ardent enemies, the Ottawas. McPherson had to postpone both her games last week on account of the illness of one of her students with what seemed to be epidemic meningitis, consequently the championship game was not played. The Bulldogs will not schedule those games until after Tuesday when the quarantine will be lifted. But it is almost certain that the Bulldog-Swede game will be played Friday night, March 7th, with a strong likelihood of the Kansas Wesleyan game on Saturday night.

THE DOPE BUCKET

By the Sport Editor

An outbreak of serious illness within the Bulldog camp saved the day for the Swedes, or rather it saved them from losing their grip on the Kansas conference title for at least ten days.

The Swede game will be played on Friday night, March 7th if nothing serious happens. Another outbreak of meningitis might prolong the championship game indefinitely. The Kansas Wesleyan game will likely be played the night following the Swede game.

It has been two weeks since the Bulldogs played a game and it will be a few more days until they have to play one. This long rest may be just what they need to give the Swedes a good sound thrashing "a la Bulldog".

A long rest will either cause the Bulldogs to play championship basketball Friday night, or it will make them so sure that they will play worse than St. Mary's did.

The Swedes beat St. Mary's 34 to 6 last Friday. Very unethical, it seems. It looks as if Carlson were afraid to use his fists. That is my idea of high school stuff. Just because the Swedes can beat a team is no sign they need to rule it in.

ON FINAL REHEARSALS OF THE OPERA "MIKADO"

The college chorus is hard at work on the final rehearsals of the opera "Mikado", which will be given in the City Auditorium, Tuesday evening, March 18th at 8:15 p. m.

The "Mikado" is a comic opera in two acts by Gilbert and Sullivan, the famous composers whose operas are pure English classics. There is never a dull moment in their operas and it is said in the future they will be valued with the comedies of Shakespeare.

The scene of the opera "Mikado" is in Japan, the time the present. A brief outline of the plot is this: Nanki Poo is in love with Yum Yum, who is betrothed to her guardian, Ko-Ko, Lord High Executioner, Poo-Hah, retailer of state secrets at a low figure, tells Nanki Poo of his sweet-heart's betrothal to another but the young man secures an interview with Yum Yum, and confesses he is the Mikado's son, disguised in hope of escaping punishment for his refusal to marry Kichia. Ko-Ko receives a message from the Mikado telling him he must see that some one in Tilgh is beheaded within the month or he will lose his position, which messenger interferes with the Lord High Executioner's matrimonial arrangements. Nanki Poo agrees to sacrifice himself if he may marry Yum Yum and have her with him during the intervening month. This is agreed to and the wedding plans are made.

At the opening of the second act Yum Yum is preparing for the ceremony. While talking with Nanki Poo she is interrupted by Ko-Ko who tells her that according to the law when a married man is executed his wife is hanged alive. This news sends Yum Yum's ardor but Nanki Poo, to save her, swears that he will that day perform the happy dispatch a la-bari-bari. As this would be dangerous to Ko-Ko, he promises in alarm to swear falsely to the execution of Nanki Poo. The Mikado now arrives and Ko-Ko tells him the execution has taken place, but the Mikado on learning who the victim is, flies into a rage and says he has beheaded the hair to the throne and must himself suffer torture for his act. However, Nanki Poo's opportunity appears and Ko-Ko gains his pardon by marrying Kichia, while Yum Yum and Nanki Poo are happily united.

The Glenn Players feature play at Emporia will be "The Devil's Disables", by George Bernard Shaw. The cast has been chosen and rehearsals begun. According to F. S. Glenn the play may be taken on the road. The cast for "The Merchant of Venice" has not been chosen yet.

CAGERS WILL NOT GO TO THE K. C. TOURNEY

BULLETIN
Mon., Mar. 3.—It was decided at a meeting of the athletic board this afternoon that the McPherson college basketball squad would not go to Kansas City to participate in the National A. A. C. basketball tournament.

PETRY FEATURES THE C. E. PROGRAM

Sun., March 2.—Featuring a talk by Prof. Ray C. Petry on the history of the Church of the Brethren, the Christian Endeavor program this evening also included a piano duet and a vocal solo.

After the devotionals which were conducted by Ethel Johnson, Helen Fiory and Ruth Turner played a plano duet following which Professor Petry spoke. Sketching a background view of early church history including the Roman, medieval, and renaissance periods the speaker told the foundation material for the story of the evolution of the German Baptist church, or the First Church of the Brethren, as it is more commonly known.

Besides tracing its early origin and its gradual growth in the eighteenth century America, Petry pointed out the characteristics of its founders and the pioneers of its church. A more intensive study of these characters is planned for later programs.

The speaker concluded his talk by saying, "The founders of our church were not sophisticated university graduates in fact, they knew no formal education. They were simple, earnest, hard-working folk with an honest conviction, and they strove to express this conviction in the founding of the church of the Brethren".

Following the speech and concluding the program, Verna Beaver sang a vocal solo.
